

Overton Rugby Football Club Disciplinary Procedure

In Connection with the game of Rugby

If any person is sent from the field of play (irrespective of age) the Club Secretary must be informed within 24 Hours to conform to HRFU rules.

STAGE 1 - Adults

In addition to the HRFU rules, the club will convene a disciplinary committee made up of the Club Captain and two Officers to listen to the facts of the case and make recommendations to the full committee who may impose sanctions against that member.

If the player pleads “not guilty to the “offence” the Committee will await the decision of the HRFU Disciplinary Committee before deciding what additional action the club may take.

STAGE 1 - Minis/Youth

Dismissal from the field of play concerning Mini's/Youths shall be dealt with in accordance with the HRFU rule book, in consultation with the Mini year coach and Mini's/Youth Manager.

STAGE 2

If the player wishes to appeal against stage 1, the Chairman and the remaining officer will consider all the facts presented to them and their decision will be final.

Non Playing

If any member (or their guest) breaks the rules of the club or brings the club into disrepute two Officers of the club will hear the evidence and put forward their findings/recommendations to the full committee for a decision to be made on sanctions.

If the member wishes to appeal, stage 2 above will apply.
